7. Cookies

We use a cookie to enable you to continue your MindSonar information gathering session when your internet connection is interrupted. This cookie is automatically removed when you finish your MindSonar information session, or when you exit the application using the exit buttons.

8. Transferring and Sharing of Personal Data

MindSonar is a global business. To offer our products, apps and services, we may need to transfer your personal data to other MindSonar companies in other countries.

Your personal data will be collected and stored on servers in the EU.

Subject to applicable data protection law we may share your personal data with:

- Sub-contractors and other persons who help us provide our products and services.
- Our legal and other professional advisors, including our auditors.
- Courts; to comply with legal requirements, and for the administration of justice
- In an emergency or to otherwise protect your vital interests
- Anyone elsewhere we have your consent for, or as required by law

9. Security measures

- We have implemented measures in an effort to maintain the confidentiality of all personal information in our custody and control, including only providing access to personal information to employees and authorised service providers who require such information for the purposes described in this document.
- We maintain administrative, technical and physical safeguards in an effort to protect against unauthorised access, use, modification and disclosure of personal information in our custody and control.
- We use Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) software to encrypt the information you enter on www.minsonar.com in order to protect its security during transmission to and from our site.

10. Age restrictions

We only process information about people under the age of 18 years, after we have received signed permission of their guardians. When you fill out your MindSonar information you will be asked to verify that you are 18 years or over.

11. Changes to our Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to modify this Privacy Policy.

If we change our Privacy Policy, we will post the updates here and on <https://www.mindsonar.info/privacy/> so you can be aware of what information we collect and store, how we use it, and to whom we disclose it.
